

Marcy Rosenbaum

Biography

Originally from Detroit Michigan, Marcy moved to Fort Wayne, Indiana at the age of twelve where she graduated from South Side High School. She attended Indiana University.

After college she lived in the Washington DC area for nine years. She later moved to Orlando Florida where she resided for the next 31 years. While in Orlando, Marcy worked as a preschool teacher for fifteen years and eventually served as Team Supervisor in a large preschool for the next sixteen years. Characterized as a "labor of love," she had the responsibility of supervising 24 teachers and 200 children as well as managing relationships with the parents of every student.

Marcy is blessed with a wonderful daughter who gave her the best son-in-law and are the reasons she relocated to the Atlanta area. She enjoys Bridge and currently teaches music two days a week at St. Thomas The Apostle Catholic Church preschool.

Marcy moved to the Magnolia's 3 ½ years ago and has made a considerable impact overseeing and coordinating community social events, recreational opportunities and providing for the needs of Magnolia residents serving as Recreation Committee Chair and the Care Committee Chair. She greatly values knowing and caring for her neighbors and passionately promotes opportunities for neighbors to build their own relationships throughout the Magnolia community. Marcy also sits on the Architectural Committee and Rules and Regulation Committee.

In her words, "I have a deep desire to serve my community. I want to be an active part of keeping our Magnolias the beautiful and self-maintained jewel that it is. I believe in being fiscally careful. I am not afraid of working hard and look forward to staying and active member of our neighborhood."
